

SUPERIOR SERVICE, QUALITY PEST SOLUTIONS

Wade Evans IPM Sales and Service Specialist

History with Wil-Kil:

Wade joined Wil-Kil Pest Control in 2005

Approach to Pest Control: My approach to pest control is to do what I need to do to protect a customer's brand or home. Pests can be inconvenient, but they can be damaging to property too, so I work hard to identify pest threats and prevent them before they get out of hand. I love walking away and having a customer thank me for a job well done.
