History with Wil-Kil:

Jim joined Wil-Kil in 2018

Approach to Pest Control:

I take my position very seriously, but I also enjoy it because I am able to learn something new every day. I also enjoy the independence I am given, while also knowing that if I ever don't know an answer to a clients questions, I am able to call my service manager to get help and learn from his experiences. I really enjoy my job because of the way it constantly challenges me to be a better person and think outside the box. I have always wanted to work in the pest control industry and I am very fortunate that Wil-Kil hired me.
